

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

April 3, 2000

Scott Taylor, Esquire
23161 Ventura Boulevard, Suite 100
Woodland Hills, CA 91364

RE: MUR 4972

Dear Mr. Taylor:

Thank you for your letter dated March 21, 2000, which we received on March 27, 2000, informing us of our apparent error in identifying you as the respondent in a recent complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission.

Please accept our apologies for this apparent error. We relied upon the best available reliable sources in locating the Scott Taylor identified in the complaint. The information sent to 1365 Crafton Avenue was returned "not deliverable;" thus, the complaint was sent to your address.

As indicated in our letter, this matter is confidential by law and must remain so in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A). Accordingly, thank you in advance for keeping confidential any information you may have obtained in connection with this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeff S. Jordan
Supervisory Attorney
